A Visit With Dr. John

I am looking at the list of names of the people who went on the Southwest Alabama mission trip. If you count me, there are 46 people. They came from nine different churches.

Team leaders include Tim Bradley, Carmen Bruce, Phil Cooley, and Jamie Hudson. Each team had teachers, group leaders, craft workers, music and recreation leaders. Four people served by cooking. Dr. Danny Wiggins directed the team. Phil

Cooley led music for the nightly worship.

All of these people had a part. Each one had a service to render.

This particular trip has been a blessing every year. Participants get to share their faith, meet new people, make new friends, encourage others, and draw closer to God. I am thankful for all who go, for the leaders, and for our partners there.

Most of the people who went are in the picture below, taken as they were about to leave. Some had gone early to prepare food for the team when they arrived.

Our Missions Development Committee usually offers a trip to Kentucky, with Bro Bruce Williams, a trip to Moldova with Bro. Steve Bruce, and trips to The Dominican Republic, Haiti, and Costa Rica with our Hispanic Missionary, John Gunter.

Several of our churches sponsor mission trips, too. We have lots of mission minded folk in Coffee County. Also, we do local missions work. Your church likely seeks to reach local people for Christ. Ministry opportunities arise for each church.

Together, we have started new work. Together, we continue to support missions endeavors like Faith Community Church. The WMU from different churches provide snacks every week. Some volunteers teach there.

Moreover, Brenda Hemp leads volunteers to provide tutoring and ESL classes. These are ways to minister and witness.

There are "open doors" for us to do missions all the time. I pray that we take advantage of more of them. I thank God for what our folk already are doing. I'm grateful for what we can do together.
