A Visit With Dr. John.....

Happy New Year!

I pray God's best for you as you serve Him faithfully in the new year. Let me mention three things that take place in January that can help inspire a person and bless a church.

A Southern Baptist tradition is to have a January Bible Study. This year's study is the Book of Deuteronomy. I believe that the more and better one knows the Bible, the better he knows God's will. Let me encourage you to take part in an overview of this Old Testament book.

"M" night, a Discipleship Training emphasis of inspiration, training, and challenge will take place at First Baptist Church Enterprise, January 20 at 6:30 p.m. Ben Bowden, Discipleship Director for the association, is intent on making this a worthwhile event. Please urge your leaders and others to come.

We offer Deacon Training every year in January. Dr. Rick Lance will be leading this year. Rick is the Executive Director of our State Convention. He will talk about what he would like for deacons to do and how he would like for them to relate to the pastor and church.

This will be good, solid, practical training from the leader of Baptists in Alabama. It will be held at Park Avenue Church, January 29, 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. I thank Bro. Nathan Sims and his committee for providing this worthwhile service.
