A Visit with Dr. John

I just got back to the office from the Annual Prayer Breakfast at Fort Rucker. The Chaplains office and the Religious Support Group there do a terrific job putting this together every year. This year's special guest was retired Chaplain Colonel Scott McChrystal. He challenged the soldiers and civilians to pray, trust God, and work to accomplish great things.

The Chaplains have been very good partners with us. Some have retired here. Some serve as pastors or Interim pastors. Our Moderator, Randy Walker, is a Retired Chaplain.

Partners within our association help us all the time. Coming up April 15 at Ino Church is VBS training. Yana Wyatt leads our teaching team. Let me urge you to make sure your teachers are elected and you all take advantage of the training these people provide.

The next eight week class of the Samford Extension begins March 26. Brother Dickie Mc Allister, DOM of Geneva Baptist Association, will be teaching the study of Parables in the Gospels. This is open to pastors and laypeople.

The annual WMU Banquet also will be at Ino Church April 19. The Widows Meeting will piggy-back with WMU for this event. Angela Hughes is president of the WMU and Melonee Blair leads the Widows Ministry.

The Boys Adventure Campout is the last weekend in April. Brad Boykin will take the lead for this camp. I thank him, John Logsdon, and other leaders for providing this opportunity for boys to be outdoors, to learn about God and to experience mentorship from godly men.

I'm not sure how the offering to pay off the debt on Snead lodge is going. A couple of pastors have told me they were doing something special for this. One church is giving their Fifth Sunday Offering. I appreciate all churches who give the opportunity for their people to respond to this call. I am grateful for all who give to help alleviate this debt of approximately $85,000.

It is a privilege to serve alongside you in Coffee Baptist Association. Thank you for your faith in me and for supporting the work we do together. May our Lord bless you, your church, and your work!
