August 22, 2019A Message from The Vineyard

Wow! That's the word for this summer! Wow! This summer will go down in my memory as one of the best yet. Between Memorial Day and August 4th, we had 35 groups, about 1,823 guests, 191 rededications, and 40 salvations!

Praise the Lord! We also held the biggest camp ever – our own Incredicamp for children. With 138 campers and over a hundred workers and volunteers, it topped the previous record by 35. What a camp! How does a person begin to say thanks to all the many people who made that happen? All I can say is you did an outstanding job – it was all great and very well planned. Thank you. You have impacted many people for life and for eternity.

If you were here at any point this summer you probably saw a bunch of young people running around cleaning or mowing. Thanks to all our Summer Missionaries who gave up big chunks of their school breaks to work. Briana Adkinson, Nick Brandon, Zach Ellis, Preston Harrison, Lizzie McKelvey, Sarah McKelvey, Johnathan Tipton, Kathryn Elisabeth Tipton, and Bekka Wriston are the ones who carried most of the work all summer. Thank you for making it all happen.

November 7th is a date I want to make you aware of. That's the day we will hold our Vineyard Appreciation Supper at the Association office. This is our chance to say thanks to all the good folks who have helped us throughout the year. Please plan to attend and spread the word around to others who should be there.

Also remember the Boys Adventure Campout the first weekend in November.

OK, now allow me to conclude with Psalm 145:3 – “Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable.” He alone is worthy.

Soli Deo Gloria,

Steve
