A Visit With Dr. John

First, let me say that I truly appreciate the good work and time investment of so many people who do things to move the association programs along. The Widows' Meetings, Sr. Adult fellowships, the Deacon Training, Samford University Extension studies, Disaster Relief planning, Vineyard work, Hispanic Ministry, Chaplains' work, Ministers Meetings, men's work, and building upkeep are some of what have taken place during the last month.

Hunger Sunday is coming up on the 16th. This used to be a really big emphasis in our churches. In recent years, the emphasis has not been much. The offerings also have diminished significantly. I would encourage our churches to make a big to do about giving to offset the problem of world hunger.

The Ministers Meeting for February will be a study about Christian living. Some of the "experts" who will be leading us are Brad Boykin, Randy Walker, Leon Fortune, Greg Cotter, Jonathan Jenkins.

The mission trip to Mobile...Our association sponsors other mission trips, which we will signify in other newsletters. I believe this is the 19th year we will be making the trip to South West Alabama. If you have any intention of going, let me urge you to call your name into the office. We do not have to have a firm count yet, but it would be great to have a general idea of how many groups we will have. We do need to make sure work is lined up for all who plan to go. We need to be doing that now.

I hope all of the churches who have signed up for the missions emphasis on March 7 and 8 are helping their people to understand the importance of taking part in the fair, the rally, and hearing the missionaries in their own churches.

Please urge people in your church to consider the marriage retreat March 20-21. Bro. Jim has proved his worth as a counselor.

Heaven gained but we lost some long-term workers in the churches during the last month. Brother Milford Johnson, Mrs. Catherine Jones, and Brother Larry Grimm have been a part of pastoral families in Coffee County for a long time. We will miss them. Lots of lay people also have gone to be with the Lord. It is impossible to measure how much their lives meant to us and the Lord's work here.
