A Visit With Dr. John.....

Training for our deacons Will Take place January 29th 6:30 to 8:00 pm at Park Avenue Church. Dr. Rick Lance, Executive Director for the Alabama Baptist State Convention, will lead. I appreciate brother Nathan Sim's and the pastoral ministries committee for pulling this together. I believe that our pastors and deacons will benefit from hearing Dr. Lance's presentation.

The inter-Baptist luncheon is scheduled for February 10 at noon. This is an effort to reach across racial and cultural gaps. It is important that we make time to build friendships and at least spend some time together. In my opinion this is a small effort, but the state leaders tell me it is the most being done in our state. I'm grateful for Brother Fred Fowler leading this committee for the last few years. The key people who compose this meeting are pastors and their wives, but laypeople are welcome to attend. You can make reservations at our office.

We have tried to be prepared for disaster and disaster relief for many years. We have a committee appointed to help us do that very thing. After the tornado in 2007 there was a local committee appointed to help us be prepared as well. One of the things they do is provide CERT training. Listed below on the right is a notice about the next training time. Let me encourage you to urge the people of your church to take part in this training so they will be ready to serve locally.

In closing, let me express thanks for the privilege of being you're Association Missionary. Believe me whenever I say there are no words to express how much I appreciate your trust in me and this platform for doing ministry. There are difficult things about it, of course, but I have been able to see so many ministry advances. Thanks and blessings!
