A Visit With Dr. Granger

Hope In Christ

I've had a lot of friends to die in the past several months. A few of these have been from childhood days and were schoolmates. Some have been preacher friends I have known and served alongside.

Some have been friends I have made since I've been in this county over the last 25 years. A lot of these people have been much more gracious and loving toward me than I deserve. I do recognize their kindness toward me and feel a great loss with their moving from this life to the next. Some of these people have been true partners in ministry, real brothers and sisters in the faith.

For most of these people, I have every assurance that they knew the Lord as personal Savior and they have gone to a better place and I will be able to see them again. The problem is: I miss them now. I will not be able to partner with them in ministry and mission ventures.

Thank God for the living hope we have in Jesus Christ our Lord! Jesus not only died for our sins, he rose again the third day. He also promised that when we passed from this life, we would go to live with him.

"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there you may be also." John 14:3

These thoughts about eternal life with God and the resurrection of the dead are some of the most comforting thoughts in the entire world. It is good to know that these ideas, which bring us so much comfort and hope, are rooted and founded upon the historical death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. As the apostle Peter said,

"For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty." 2 Peter 1:16

Peter and his friends had seen Jesus alive after His death and burial. Peter's life was changed and his hope kindled because of that fact. Although we are 2000 years removed from that historical event, those who believe still have the same hope.

That is a faith and hope worth sharing!

The Jackie Bundy home in the Eanon Community was dedicated on May 21, 2017. The Bundy home was severely damaged in the Christmas flood over a year ago. Mr. Mike Dickerson and Mr. Dean Craig led many volunteers to rebuild the Bundy home. Shown in the photo above are some of the volunteers who worked to make the home reconstruction possible.
