A Visit With Dr. John

The Groundbreaking Ceremony at the Church on Boll Weevil Circle last Sunday was a milestone. I know that many of you have been supportive of this effort to begin a new church on a main traffic artery in Enterprise. I want to thank you for any kind of encouragement or prayer support over these last years.

Please continue to pray for the church and for me as I lead it. We believe the builder will start work on the foundation within a couple of weeks. We hope the building will be ready to occupy sometime during the summer.

By the time you read this, our Missions Emphasis Weekend will be over. Let me say how much I appreciate so many of our churches participating. I'm thankful you have a heart for missions, want to learn more about missions, and be more involved in the same.

It would be difficult to relay how much time and effort has gone into preparing for this weekend. Having the WMU team, along with other WMU people from the churches, to serve as hostesses, is a tremendous help. The Men's Ministry and boys work leaders also pulled in lots of help to drive missionaries from one church to another. Michele and Emily, in our office, have done untold hours of connecting and preparation. In particular, Emily has been able to keep a good spirit with lots of extra work. Michele will be able to give us a final tally about how much this event has cost us. Having such a nice place and such solid leaders at the Vineyard has helped in hosting and in saving the association money.

I'm positive there will be glitches in getting missionaries to multiple services of 42 churches this coming Sunday. I am interested in hearing of ways we might improve. I pray the missteps may be few.

I pray the blessings will be many. Anything we do that has the possibility of such great blessings also has the possibility of much error. So I am more interested in reports of ways God blesses you during this weekend.

Let me thank Dr. Michael Mynatt and Hillcrest Church for their graciousness and generosity in allowing us to use their facilities for this Saturday afternoon and evening event. They have done everything we asked. They deserve a lot more than simply my thanks.
